

SOCIETY instituted in 1787, for the Purpose of effecting the ABOLITION of the SLAVE TRADE.

ENCOURAGED by the success which has attended the publication of sundry Tracts against Slavery, this Society was formed in order to excite still more the publick attention to the Slave Trade, and to collect such evidence or information as may tend to its discouragement, and, finally, to its abolition.

For these purposes (which have been already attended with, and cannot be effected without considerable expence) a Subscription has been opened. A List of the Names of the Subscribers, whose number increases daily, and of the Committee appointed to manage the Funds, is annexed.

The principal aim of the Society is to promote, among the Members of both Houses of Parliament, a disposition to inquire into this inhuman traffick; and they have the satisfaction already to number, amongst the friends of the cause, several men of distinguished character and abilities, who enter into the business with a zeal, which affords a reasonable ground to hope for the accomplishment of the design.

They have also the peculiar pleasure of seeing men of different religious denominations, unite with true Christian harmony in the cause of humanity and justice.

The Pamphlets herewith sent, are intended to give a Summary View of the Slave Trade, and are meant to be generally distributed amongst those, whose exertions or subscriptions may be expected.

If this trade should become, as there is reason to hope it will, a subject of Parliamentary investigation early in the next sessions, it is to be wished that the general sense of the Nation (which without doubt is in favour of liberty, justice, and humanity) may be expressed by Petitions to Parliament, and by applications to their Representatives, in order to procure their assistance. In the distribution of the Tracts, it is therefore recommended that this purpose may be kept in view.

The Society will thankfully receive any Communications on this Subject, addressed to the Chairman at their Office, No. 18, in the Old Jewry; or to the Treasurer in Lombard-street, London.

NAMES of the COMMITTEE appointed for procuring Information and Evidence, and for directing the Application of such Monies as are already or may be hereafter collected for the Purposes of this Institution.

GRANVILLE SHARP, CHAIRMAN.

SAMUEL HOARE, JUN. TREASURER.

Robert Barclay,	George Harrison,	James Phillips,	John Vickris Taylor,
John Barton,	Joseph Hooper,	Richard Phillips,	Josiah Wedgwood,
Thomas Clarkson,	John Lloyd,	Philip Sansom,	Joseph Woods.
William Dillwyn,

N. B. The Subscriptions of such as are disposed to contribute towards carrying on the Design of this Society, will be received by the Treasurer, or by any Member of the Committee.
